Before filling out an application, please take time to thoroughly read this letter as there are a few considerations to be made before deciding whether or not being a Teens P.A.C.T. Peer Leader is right for you.

What is Teens P.A.C.T?
Teens P.A.C.T. is a program of Community Healthcare Network. Community Healthcare Network is a network of thirteen clinics that strives to meet the healthcare needs of patients in some of New York City’s most underserved communities. Teens P.A.C.T. is designed to promote sexual health among young people regardless of whether or not they are sexually active. Our goals are to prevent pregnancy, sexually transmitted infections and HIV among NYC youth. We provide confidential reproductive healthcare (birth control, STI and HIV counseling services, GYN exams, etc.) at no cost. We also provide workshops and education on a range of topics (Safer Sex, Reproductive Health, Peer Pressure, etc.) to teens in schools and throughout the community. Finally, we sponsor opportunities for young people to foster new relationships and build skills through participation in free youth development and recreational activities.
