

LGBTQ Resources: Downtown

The Door

Serves LGBTQ people ages 12-21

- Help during a crisis
- Short and long term counseling
- Medical care
- Help finding housing
- Educational and training programs
- English classes
- Legal services
- Free sexual health services: condoms, birth control, Plan B, STD and HIV testing and care, pregnancy testing

555 Broome Street
New York, NY 10013
212.941.9090
door.org

Henry Street Settlement

Serves LGBTQ people of all ages

- Arts center
- Job training and placement
- Medical care
- Help in a crisis
- Mental health services
- Housing
- Academic, health and wellness programs

40 Montgomery Street
New York, NY 10002
212.233.5032
henrystreet.org

Hetrick-Martin Institute

Serves LGBTQ people of all ages

- Counseling services
- Harvey Milk High School
- GED classes
- Help for homeless youth
- After school programs

2 Astor Place
New York, NY 10003
212.674.2400
hmi.org

Talk to your CHN Health Educator if you have more questions!

Care you feel good about.

866.246.8259

www.chnnyc.org

LGBTQ Resources: Downtown

The Center

Serves all LGBTQ and allied people ages 13-22

- Peer leadership training
- Discussion groups
- Creative art workshops
- One-on-one support
- Local resources
- Social events
- A safe space for young LGBTQ people to celebrate who they are

208 W. 13th Street

New York, NY 10011

212.620.7310

gaycenter.org

New Alternatives

Serves LGBT homeless youth ages 16-24

- Life skills workshops
- Educational and discussion groups
- Support groups
- Hot meals
- Food pantry
- Clothing and toiletries

Walk-in Sundays 6-8pm and Tuesdays 5-9pm

83 Christopher Street

New York, NY 10014

718.300.0133

newalternativesnyc.org

Day One

Serves survivors of violence up to age 24

- Single and group counseling
- Support group for LGBTQ survivors of sexual assault and violence
- Free legal services
- Help feeling safe in school
- Low-cost LGBT focused educational series from FIERCE

Address is secret for safety, you must call to plan a visit

Canal Street

New York, NY 10013

212.566.8120

dayoneny.org

If you're thinking about suicide, you deserve immediate help, please call the Trevor Lifeline at 866-488-7386